

Recruitment Resources for New York State Community Health Centers

Introduction

In addition to the CHCANYS Career Page, community health centers (CHCs) can use the following list of state and national job boards to post open positions. This resource is designed to help CHCs across New York State connect with mission-driven job seekers.

Regional and Federal Job Boards

New York State Area Health Education Center (AHEC) Job Board

The NYS AHEC job board is a free resource to post openings and connect with health professions students and early professionals across New York State. There are also regional AHECs.
