1. Introduction

In alignment with guidance from the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), Community Health Centers (CHCs) are encouraged to report their operational status to their Primary Care Association (PCA) during emergencies. This ensures coordinated response efforts, reduces redundant information requests, and allows HRSA to communicate urgent needs to federal partners such as the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

To streamline this process, CHCANYS utilizes the VEOCI platform—a secure, cloud-based system that allows CHCs across New York State to report their operational status quickly and efficiently during emergency events. By completing a brief form within VEOCI, CHCs can share critical information in real time, including:

- Type of emergency or disruption
- Name of the health center
- Site(s) affected and geographic location
- Current operational status (e.g., open, closed, limited service)
- Reason for service interruption, if applicable
- Additional remarks (e.g., infrastructure damage, staffing impacts, estimated reopening date)

VEOCI allows CHCANYS to aggregate and analyze this data to better support CHCs, advocate for resources, and keep key stakeholders informed.

2. Getting Started with VEOCI

2.1 Step 1: Submit the MOU and Designate Your CHC's End User

1. Request/update a VEOCI MOU with the CHCANYS EM Team via email (emteam@chanys.org)

2. Have your organization's CEO/ Executive Director or other executive staff member sign the MOU with CHCANYS to confirm your organization's interest in participating.

3. Designate a staff member as the VEOCI POC/End user.

4. The designated point of contact (POC)/end user will be responsible for responding to emergency notifications, drills, and platform updates. They will also be expected to keep their organization's CEO or Executive Director informed of relevant communications and activities.

2.2 Step 2: Receive an Invite and Complete Your Profile

1. Once the MOU is fully executed, CHC's will receive a copy, and CHCANYS will then finalize end user access. The designated end user will be prompted via email from VEOCI to complete their profile and login credentials.

2.3 Step 3: Ready to respond to Mass notifications and Drills

1. The end user will now have access to their dashboard and will be able to respond to mass notifications and CHCANYS drills.

3. Using VEOCI: Key Features

3.1 Drill Responses

- CHCANYS uses VEOCI to facilitate routine drills to test emergency response readiness.
  - a. You will receive notifications via email and/or text message with instructions on how to respond.
  - b. Users can participate in drills/exercises and provide information in real-time during emergencies.

• During actual emergencies, users will receive text and/or email notifications along with instructions.

3.2 Receiving Mass Notifications from CHCANYS

CHCANYS notifications include clear instructions and typically require minimal actions such as clicking a link to complete a brief form or, in some cases, logging in for real-time updates in a sideroom.
